The Southeastern
court reporting leader offering the most
trial support services
in Georgia and beyond

Bull Darity Hopson & Worley A Record of Excellence

With high-security-clearance court reporting experience in congressional, judicial and JAG cases, as well as experience in conference and convention reporting, we're the multimedia reporters that attorneys have turned to for support for decades.

From the inception of your case until the jury delivers the verdict, count on the staff that Dennis Bull, CCR, RPR, CSVS, Thomas Darity, CCR, RPR, and Howard Worley, CCR, RPR, RMR (retired), created for precision reporting and related services.

Preparing for trial takes knowledge, skill and experience. The last thing you need is to contact several sources for all the critical support services required. Now there's one proven source for all your needs: Bull Darity Hopson & Worley, LLC.

As a single point of contact for deposition, court reporting, demonstrative evidence, photography, videography, audiovisual production and post-production services, Bull Darity Hopson & Worley can save you time and anxiety so you can focus on preparing your case. Our professionals possess the experience, expertise and advanced technology to deliver consistently superior services, exceptional customer support and the highest levels of dependability and reliability.

Earning trust

Headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, Bull Darity Hopson & Worley professional court reporters cover the entire state of Georgia and, through our extended global network, the Southeast, the nation, Puerto Rico, Canada, England, Germany, Ireland, Hong Kong and Singapore. Through hard work, quality services and exceptional customer support, we've earned the trust of attorneys throughout the state and beyond.

Turning insight into total support

We understand attorneys' needs for quality service and convenience. That's why Bull Darity Hopson & Worley has grown to provide more trial support services and Georgia locations than any other Georgia agency—as well as support throughout the United States and part of Europe and Asia.
